

I Shall Walk The World

Arranger/Lyricist: Anthony A Eddy

Composer: George J. Webb

Lively ♩ = 120

Piano

F B \flat F C F C F B \flat

1. I shall walk the world so long as it is day, For as the day draws close and
 2. If clouds o'er take me how can I ev - er say, As the night creeps in and show-
 3. Soon the dawn will rise, a - ccom - pa - nied by hope. For no souls must be lost, too
 4. This day I just know I am a - bout to shout For a soul with prom - ise: of
 5. At times of greet - ing, with cus - toms to the fore, The ears hear hap - pi - ness with
 6. I shall walk the world; a new tongue on my lips. For when the tongue does speak, the

7 F C7 F C F B \flat Gm F C F

1. some re - main un - swayed, I shall talk the world when ev - er there's a ray; There should be no re -
 2. ers all with its rest, "The day's near - ly done and I have lost my way." So the dreams will speak:
 3. val - u - ble to 'botch'. Then the fight is joined by those who will not mope. All to be made 'at
 4. val - ue and great worth. Now I'm all e - quipped: with 'Good News', there's no doubt. It's for the high - est
 5. laugh - ter loud - ly now; Then the reign of joy is there be - hind each door; Each home e - cho - ing
 6. Spir - it clears the strife. I shall talk the world to those who take but sips, Then all is well with -

14 B \flat F C7 F F B \flat F C F C F

1. gret of what has not been laid. (Ch. vs. 1 - 5) For times are chang - ing. Yes! The times are a chang - ing! New be - gin - nings
 2. an off - er - ing to the blest. (Ch. vs 6) For times are chang - ing. Yes! The times are a chang - ing! New be - gin - nings
 3. home' while it is still my watch. For times are chang - ing. Yes! The times are a chang - ing! New be - gin - nings
 4. stakes, I'm set to search the earth. For times are chang - ing. Yes! The times are a chang - ing! New be - gin - nings
 5. truth that brings the waist to bow. For times are chang - ing. Yes! The times are a chang - ing! New be - gin - nings
 6. in: the on - set of new life. For times are chang - ing. Yes! The times are a chang - ing! New be - gin - nings

22 B \flat F C7 F C C F B \flat Gm F C ritardando B \flat F C7 F

1, 2, 3, 4, 5. 6.

1. come! Set - ting all bells a ring - ing! Newtimes ar - riv - ing! Songs of prom - ise a - sing - ing!
 2. come! Set - ting all bells a ring - ing! Newtimes ar - riv - ing! Songs of de - light a - bring - ing: the seal - ing of The Lamb.
 3. come! Set - ting all bells a ring - ing! Newtimes ar - riv - ing! Songs of prom - ise a - sing - ing!
 4. come! Set - ting all bells a ring - ing! Newtimes ar - riv - ing! Songs of de - light a - bring - ing: the seal - ing of The Lamb.
 5. come! Set - ting all bells a ring - ing! Newtimes ar - riv - ing! Songs of prom - ise a - sing - ing!
 6. come! Set - ting all bells a ring - ing! Newtimes ar - riv - ing! Songs of de - light a - bring - ing: the seal - ing of The Lamb.