C  $\text{♩} = 105$  G Dm7 G F C/E Dm7 C

1 The Li-on of Ju-dah was where peo-ple came to mock; has freed wa-ters from — each dam;
 2 The Li-on of Ju-dah is at ease in His su-rounds; calls to ev-er-y — crea-ture;
 3 The Li-on of Ju-dah ming-les in the midst of throngs; reg-al-ly be-fore — the crowns;
 4 The Li-on of Ju-dah has a gown that will en-dure; is set-tled to host — a feast;
 5 The Li-on of Ju-dah knows well the Song of the Lamb; marks the an-them of — the rock;
 6 The Li-on of Ju-dah a-chieves the flight of the beast; has re-dressed all un-just wrongs;

8 G C G G7 C

1 has op-ened doors that will not slam; holds keys so gates — no long-er lock.
 2 is pre-pared in dress of sta-ture; has vis-i-ted — the time — of bounds.
 3 is seat-ed with the ones in gowns; hears an an-them — a-mong — the songs.
 4 greets the great and the ver-y least; has the de-mean-our of — the sure.
 5 ac-cepts hom-age from an e-poch; rules in ma-jes-ty as — I AM.
 6 o-ver-comes those who beat the gongs; reigns from the west — un-to — the east.
